BALKED BY TAYLOR

Kentucky's Governor Adjoins the State Legislature.

SAYS INSURRECTION EXISTS.

Temporarily Removes the Capital to London, a Mountain Town.

HE ALSO CHARGES CONSPIRACY.

Warrants Out For Democrats, Who Attempt to Hold a Session.

WILLIAM GOEBEL SLOWLY SINKING.

His Spirit For Hours Has Been Hovering Over Eternity's Brink, and the Doctors Have Abandoned Hope—No Attempt Being Made to Apprehend the Assassin.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 31.—Senator William Goebel began sinking slowly shortly after noon, and failed steadily, but very gradually. He was fully conscious, and at 1 o'clock asked that a minister be sent for. Rev. T. F. Taffere of the Methodist church and Prison Chaplain Wallace were hastily summoned, and remained for some time at his bedside. He then asked that a clergyman of the Christian church, a personal friend of his, who lived some distance in the country, be sent for and this was done.

Shortly after noon Mrs. Herman Brannocker, of Hartwell, O., sister of Goebel, arrived with Miss Margaret Partine. Mrs. Brannocker was weeping. She was taken at once to the bedside of her brother. The senator was conscious and recognized her with a smile. Senator Goebel's married sister, who lives in Pennsylvania, arrived at noon. Goebel at 12:30 asked to see his sister, Mrs. Brannocker, again and she went into the room, weeping and almost prostrated. The doctor told her the end was near.

Goebel was slightly better at day-break Wednesday. The physicians, however, held out no strong hopes of his recovery, and said that the chances were still very great that his wound would terminate fatally. During the early part of the night he failed steadily, and about 11 o'clock it was thought that he could not last much longer. About midnight, however, he rallied and from that time until morning held his own and a little more. He was troubled during the night with frequent spells of nausea, which the physicians declared to be a bad symptom. The courage of the wounded man never failed him for an instant, and when able to talk insisted that he was surely going to recover.

No progress has been made toward apprehending the man who did the shooting, and it is not likely that any will be made. To all appearances as much is known of the would-be assassin today as ever will be known. The police have practically abandoned the case and there is nobody besides them to take up the case. The force of mountaineers is in the building from which the shot was fired and nobody has been allowed to enter it. Access to it is made still more difficult now by the force of soldiers which is stationed at every gate.

It is certain now that the legislature will seat Goebel at the first session which it holds. If he is seated by a joint ballot the Republicans will pay no attention to the matter and will refuse to surrender any of the offices. They have made up their minds that the seating of Goebel by a joint ballot is illegal, even under the Goebel election law, which provides that a contesting candidate for governor shall be seated by a majority of both houses. They will resist flatly any effort of the Democrats to seat officers by joint ballot.

One reason for the Appellate court adjourning is the fact that letters were received from Middleboro stating that Appellate Judges Hazelrig and Hobson were also to have been killed Tuesday.

TAYLOR'S PROCLAMATION.

Indignant Democratic Legislators Battling by the Troops.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 31.—Governor Taylor issued a proclamation declaring that a state of insurrection existed in Kentucky, and particularly in the city of Frankfort, and because of this he adjourned the legislature to meet at London, Laurel county, on Feb. 6.

The Democratic members of the legislature decline to accept the adjournment and decided to meet elsewhere. The legislature as a body ran through the streets to the opera house, to find a company of soldiers drawn up before it. Then the legislature decided to deliberate in the court house and to run through the streets in that direction. A second company of soldiers beat the law makers to the goal and they then took to the streets, looking for a place in which to hold a session and declare Goebel governor of Kentucky.

When the proclamation was read at the capitol loud cries of indignation were heard from the Democratic members. Above the tumult came a voice clear and sharp: "We are dealing with a pack of heathens and hounds. Let's go to the opera house." Shouts of approval greeted this proposal, and out of the door down the broad steps streamed the crowd hastening along St. Clair street toward the opera house. Close behind came General Collier on the run. He shouted orders to Lieutenant Colonel Gray, who was standing by the steps; a few quick orders were given by that officer and away toward the opera house went the soldiers on a dead run. It was no parade. Every man went as though running to a fire. They ran up the middle of the street and easily distanced the legislators, who took the sidewalk and handicapped themselves by the numerous posts, boxes and pedestrians that filled the way. When the law makers arrived, all they obtained for the run of a quarter of a mile was the privilege of standing on the opposite side of the street and gazing at the opera house, the front of which was occupied by a panting line of soldiers in double rank with fixed bayonets. General Lyons, the oldest and most corpulent member, had, despite his physical drawbacks, managed to beat the soldiers and get into the hall. He was politely requested to come out, which he did with the remark: "It does not look as though a quorum will get in."

Thomas Heffner, owner of the opera house, demanded that the members of the legislature should be admitted. It was private property, he claimed, and the militia had no right to keep anybody from it. He was completely ignored by Lieutenant Colonel Gray. Speaker Trimble stepped up to Lieutenant Colonel Gray and demanded entrance to the hall. It was refused.

Turning around Mr. Trimble addressed the crowd:

"Gentlemen, we are denied admission to the opera house. We will now adjourn to the court house."

Away went the crowd with good-natured yells of derision at the soldiers who had orders to remain at the opera house and could not leave.

Again Blocked.

The triumph of the law makers was short-lived. Before they had gone 100 feet from the opera house around the corner swung a second company of soldiers directly in their path. The second heat of the race was now on and away went the dignified senators and representatives down the street in a cloud of dust, yelling like a pack of Indians.

Alongside ran the soldiers. It was the same story over again, and the legislators were permitted to look at the outside of the court house, while the soldiers held the path.

Speaker Trimble announced "that the legislature will now adjourn subject to my call." All the crowd had dispersed. It was decided by the military authorities that if another attempt at a meeting is made to arrest all concerned in the gathering and lock them up.

The selection of London as the meeting place of the legislature is significant in the fact that it is right in the heart of the country from which all the mountaineers, who have from time to time come down to Frankfort. The county is one of the strongest Republican counties in the state and its inhabitants are for the most part radical Republicans. The Democrats say that their lives will not be safe a day if they go up into that country. None of them will go. The Republican members began drawing their per diem at once and all of them left for London on the evening trains.

Governor Taylor has issued a warrant for the arrest of South Trimble, the Democratic speaker of the house of representatives, charging him with conspiracy to overthrow the government. The warrant has been placed in Adjutant General Collier's hands for service. Other members will also be served.

For the Democrats the following statement has been issued: The proclamation of Taylor is unwarranted in fact and in law. There is no insurrection, unless the presence of the militia and what they are doing constitutes an insurrection. But if an insurrection did exist, the governor has no power to adjourn the general assembly on that account or any other, except where the two houses fail to agree on adjournment. It is signed by E. E. Barton and other Democratic legislators.

The contest boards finished their work, and, by a strict party vote, declared Goebel and Beckham elected governor and lieutenant governor, respectively.

SALOONS IN PHILIPPINES.

Responsibility of the United States for the Curse.

[Leslie's Weekly.]

Of all the problems that confront us in the reconstruction of the Philippines the gravest and wickedest is one of our own importation. The Manila saloons, taken collectively, are the worst possible kind of a blot on Uncle Sam's fair name. The city's air reeks with the odors of the worst of English liquors. And all this has come to pass since August 13, 1898!

With the vanguard of the American troops entering Manila rode the newly-appointed Philippine agent of a concern that had ship-loads of drink on the way. He secured offices, warehouses, options on desirable locations for saloons and opened business. Some of the proudest and best youth of our land marched into Manila to proclaim the dawn of a new era of honesty, liberty and light. It was a day of rare import to the downtrodden East. But the saloon-keeper sneaked in under the folds of Old Glory.

Almost by the time the American soldier had stacked arms in the city a score of American saloons were open. Swiftly other scores were added to them. The number grew and grew. At the outbreak of the insurrection there were hundreds of American saloons in Manila. There not being at that time enough American civilians, so disposed, to take up all the licenses, natives were debauched into the traffic. Spaniards engaged in the business, perhaps with an ironic purpose of hastening the corruption of both American and Filipino.

To-day there is no thoroughfare of length in Manila that has not its long line of saloons. The street cars carry flaunting advertisements of this brand of whisky and that kind of gin. The local papers derive their main revenue from the displayed advertisements of firms and companies eager for their share of Manila's drink money. The city presents to the new-comer a saturnalia of alcoholism.

AGUINALDO'S STATEMENT

Plunges the United States Senate Into a Fierce Debate.

Washington, Jan. 31.—When the senate convened Mr. Pettigrew wished a statement made by Aguinaldo printed as a document. He said that if it was not allowed he would read the statement and thereby get it in the record. Mr. Hawley (Conn.) said he would object to the reading as treasonable. Mr. Pettigrew asserted that the departments were holding back information. Mr. Lodge (Mass.) objected to the Aguinaldo statement because he said it was a mass of falsehoods. He resented the statement that information was being held back.

Mr. Jones (Ark.) said he thought all the truth should be known. He thought a mistake was made in refusing to pass the resolutions of inquiry. He also thought there should be no objections to printing the documents. If they were true they ought to be known; if false their untruthfulness would be shown.

Mr. Sewall (N. J.) said he was not in favor of Philippine acquisition, but no matter what his personal opinions were, he supported the flag when it was attacked. He deprecated beyond measure the action of Senator Pettigrew.

Mr. Spooner thought it was about time to draw the line upon this constant and daily suit of Aguinaldo against the United States. He said no statement of a man in arms against the United States should be placed upon the records of the senate.

House Proceedings.

Washington, Jan. 31.—In the house a bill was passed to correct an error in last river and harbor bill relating to appropriation for the improvement of Buffalo harbor and the Galveston ship channel. The house then went into a committee of the whole for the consideration of Indian appropriation bill. Mr. Sherman (N. Y.), in charge of the measure, explained its provisions.

The fir tree is the component of all trees, being found in every part of the world.

NEW COAL SCALE.

An Agreement May Be Reached Between Miners and Operators.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 31.—The miners and coal operators seem to be getting closer together. The action of the joint conference in ordering the joint scale committee to report a scale not later than 2 o'clock Thursday had a good effect. It brought the miners into executive session immediately after the conference adjourned and the radical element among the miners was outgeneraled, the conservative leaders pleading that the deadlock in the committee, if not broken, would result in worse conditions. The miners in the scale committee are now free to act as they please; so are the operators' end of the committee.

The sparring between the two factions of the committee has already developed a backdown from the run-of-mine demand of the miners in all four states; they are willing to accept in Illinois and Indiana and let the double standard exist in Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Lawton Overcome.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 31.—Until she reached this city Mrs. Lawton knew nothing of the fund raised by the American people. The news was taken aboard by Pilot Reed and communicated to Mrs. Lawton by Lieutenant Colonel Edwards, the dead soldier's adjutant general. "Oh, how kind, how kind," she sobbed, and completely overcome, she sank down upon a divan and cried like a child. "It had always been Henry's ambition and mine," she said presently, "to have a home for the children, but I had despised of it."

Americans Ambushed.

Manilla, Jan. 31.—Monday's affair near Subi resembled the recent pack train ambush. Lieutenant Schenck, with a scouting party of 40 men of the 25th Infantry, ran into a large force of insurgents in a mountain defile. Schenck fell at the first volley, shot in the head. Sergeant Singleton and three privates were killed and five men were wounded. The Americans then retreated. Afterwards a stronger force was sent to the scene of the fighting and the insurgents departed.

Crashed Into a Freight.

Peru, Ind., Jan. 31.—While a locomotive with a dead engine ahead of it was being coaled here, the throttle worked open. The locomotive started forward, pushing the dead engine. Two miles out from the city the two locomotives running at a speed of 50 miles an hour, crashed into fast freight No. 61 coming from the opposite direction. Engineer Becket and Fireman Brumfield jumped and were seriously injured, and the engines were wrecked.

Destructive Village Fire.

Wichita, Kas., Jan. 31.—I've destroyed the business portion of Winfield, a town of 6,000 inhabitants, 40 miles south of here, and threatened the city building and county jail. The Hackney block, a three-story building erected at a cost of $125,000, and its entire contents were burned, and a hundred people were made homeless. The Arlington hotel was destroyed and the Rutter livery barn was burned with all the horses.

Plague Under Control.

Port Townsend, Wash., Jan. 31.—The Japanese steamship Nanyo Maru arrived from Honolulu, bringing 48 passengers. She had a clean bill of health from the American authorities at Honolulu. Her officers report that on January 17, the day she sailed, bubonic plague was under control, no new cases having been reported, and that a feeling of security prevailed at Honolulu.

British Consul's Denial.

Washington, Jan. 31.—Secretary Hay, a week ago, called the attention of Lord Pauncefote to the reported criticism of members of the senate made by Mr. Von Sittara, the British consular officer at New Orleans, as a result of an investigation instituted by the ambassador. The department has learned that Mr. Von Sittara repudiated the sentiments attributed to him. This denial will be transmitted to the senate foreign relations committee, which was directed to make an inquiry into the matter.

No Federal Interference.

Washington, Jan. 31.—Secretary Root is authority for the statement that there is nothing in the situation in Kentucky calling for federal interference. He is credited with the remark that the state authorities are perfectly able to deal with the situation and are not apt to call on the general government for assistance. Federal troops will be ordered to Kentucky only as a last resort.

The Weather.

For Ohio—Fair; Continued low temperature; fresh westerly winds.

BOERS ABOUT TO MOVE

Tons of Lead and Steel to Be Hurled Into Three Besieged Towns.

ALL MAY BE REDUCED IN A WEEK.

With Ladysmith, Kimberley and Mafeking Out of the Way, British Aggression Will Be More Stoutly Resisted.

London, Jan. 31.—The despatch from Cape Town, which quotes General Buller as saying he hoped to be in Ladysmith in a week, is discredited here. The report of fighting at Crocodile Pool dispels of the rumor that the British had relieved Mafeking. There is no great enthusiasm in London over the expected invasion of the Orange Free State by a third British army, for it is considered likely that the Boers have planned a good defense. Colonel Villebœuf-Mareuil, the French strategist, has started for Colesburg to assist in repelling the British advance. Confirmation has been received of the report that the chief Boer shell factory in Johannesburg has been blown up.

For the present the British can do nothing to help Ladysmith. Some experts believe that General White will try to cut his way out. He must either do this or surrender for his food supply is almost exhausted. It is said that, upon the fall of Ladysmith, Dr. Leyds, in Europe, and Montague White, in Washington, will appeal for mediation.

The British public seem to have totally lost confidence in General Buller. The next big news is expected to be furnished by the Boers. They have doubled their energy in the siege in Kimberley, and may be expected to close in on Ladysmith.

There is no sign, except the anxiety of the British cabinet, that any hostile demonstration against England is contemplated. Russia and France are sure to take advantage of England's helplessness by grabbing territory in Asia, but the czar is living up to his reputation as the foe of war.

Sudden orders were received at Aldershot for the immediate embarkation of the Fourth cavalry brigade for the Cape.

General Buller telegraphs from Spearman's Camp, under Wednesday's date, that Colonel Thorneycroft was the officer who ordered the retirement from Spion Kop. General Buller adds: "It is due to him to say that I believe his personal gallantry saved a difficult situation early on Jan. 24, and that under a loss of at least 40 per cent he directed the defense with conspicuous courage and ability throughout the day."

Government Arraigned.

London, Jan. 31.—Sir Robert Threlkeld Reid, Liberal member of parliament for the Dumfries district, bitterly arraigned the "government's recklessness and duplicity," which, he said, aroused the first misunderstanding with Boers and which, fostered and stimulated by the wickedness and folly of a few men, resulted in the war. The parliamentary committee of inquiry, he further asserted, was a scandal and a dishonor to the house and there was a suspicion that the Jamison raid was organized with the complicity of Mr. Chamberlain.

Boer Casualties.

Pretoria, Jan. 31.—It is officially announced that the Boer casualties at Spion Kop were 53 men killed and 120 wounded. Webster Davis, assistant secretary of the interior at Washington, accompanied by United States Cousin Hollis and the state attorney started for the Boer head laager, at Ladysmith, in the president's saloon carriage.

Must Take Up Arms.

Cape Town, Jan. 31.—Kimberley telegraphed to Modder River, Friday, Jan. 28, that all the British subjects in the Barkley West district had been ordered by the Boers to take up arms for the republic under a penalty of 37 pounds sterling, or three months at hard labor. About 300 men are affected by this order.

A Tempestuous Passage.

New York, Jan. 31.—The belated Allan Line steamer City of Nebraska arrived from Glasgow after a most tempestuous passage, lasting over 19 days. From the time the steamer left the Clyde on Jan. 11 until her arrival at the Sandy Hook lightship she experienced a series of terrific gales from the westward with tremendous high seas and heavy squalls of snow and hail.

Vallejo, Cal., Jan. 31.—Colonel Chas. F. Williams, commissioner of the United States Marine corps at Mare Island, is dead of hemorrhage of the stomach.

COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY.

Merited Acknowledgement of Dr. Shackleford's Efficient and Faithful Services as Health Officer.

The Mason County Medical Society met in regular session yesterday. The attendance was commendable, in view of the low temperature and the torrid political situation. The opposing conditions, however, had no appreciable effect upon accepted theories medical; the average doctor is nothing if not logical and conservative always.

The absence of the regular essayists gave occasion for much individual mention, and many subjects of professional interest were introduced and discussed in a pleasing way. A feature of the meeting was the introduction and unanimous adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the Mason County Medical Society, as representing the collective medical interests of the county, give public expression to the appreciation of the faithful and efficient services of Dr. James Shackleford as Health Officer of the county during the past year. These services are all the more commendable that they were rendered without unreasonable or insistent demands for pecuniary compensation, and were preceded by years of useful and uncompensated service in the treatment and suppression of epidemic and contagious forms of disease.

This was in the nature of a voluntary merited acknowledgment to the worthy President of the society—as deserved, as unsought.

Dr. Sam'l. Harover will be the essayist for next monthly meeting.

Cold Steel or Death.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis., by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvelous power of Electric Bitters to cure stomach and liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price 50c., at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store.

GOVERNOR GOEBEL.

He Was Sworn In as Chief Executive of the State at 8:30 o'clock Last Night.

Col. John B. Castleman Adjutant General, and Taylor's Armed Soldiers Disbanded.

Goebel Was Still Alive at Last Accounts—The Latest From the Scene.

The Legislature met at the Capital Hotel, Frankfort, late Wednesday afternoon, in spite of acting Governor Taylor's troops, and declared William Goebel the legally elected Governor. Seventy-five members were present and all signed the resolution.

At 8:30 o'clock Chief Justice Hazelrigg administered the oath of office as Governor.

Gov. Goebel at once issued an order commanding the State Guards to return to their homes.

Col. John B. Castleman was appointed Adjutant General.

A dispatch at 8:20 this morning from Representative Alexander stated Goebel was still alive and resting well. Serious trouble is feared at Frankfort to-day.

WHOLLY UNWARRANTED.

Gov. Taylor's High Handed Proceedings Unanimously Condemned by Judges of the Court of Appeals.

[Cincinnati Post.]

FRANKFORT, KY., Jan. 31.—Six of the seven Judges of the Court of Appeals held a consultation at the private residence of one of the members of the court, and it is learned that Governor Taylor's action in dissolving the Legislature was condemned unanimously, though no record was made of the proceedings, as they were unofficial.

All Judges of the court were present except Judge Poynter, and the three Republican Judges concurred with the Democrats that Taylor's action was wholly unwarranted and in violation of the Constitution.

The court will adjourn over till next Tuesday and in the meantime there is probability that proceedings will be instituted in the civil courts to stop the program which Taylor started to-day.

The meeting of the Judges was held in secret, but the facts are given to the Post semi-officially.

BLAMES TAYLOR.

George Fred Williams Holds Him Responsible.

BOSTON, Jan. 30.—George Fred Williams made the following signed statement about the Goebel tragedy:

When the Governor of a Republican State permits for several days irresponsible armed forces to invent a city in which a lawful Legislature is assembled, he is fully responsible for the death of an assassinated leader.

This Governor of Kentucky threatened to call the militia to threaten the lawful decision of the Legislature, and he expected to secure the aid of the United States forces. Such actions are not only anarchy, they are treason, and in a well ordered republic the Governor should be held responsible for the crime he has thus instigated.

GEORGE FRED WILLIAMS.

"I feel as if I should fly to pieces." How often those words are on a woman's lips. They express to the utmost the nerve racked condition of the body, which makes life a daily martyrdom. If this condition had come suddenly it would have been unbearable. But the transition was gradual. A little more strain each day on the nerves. A very woman would be glad to be rid of such a condition. Every woman tries to be rid of it. Thousands of such women have been cured by Dr. Pierce's treatment with his "Favorite Prescription" when local doctors had entirely failed to cure.

"Favorite Prescription" contains no opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

WATSON-RODEN WEDDING.

The First Baptist Church the Scene of a Happy Nuptial Event Wednesday Afternoon at 2 o'clock.

At 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Mr. John Ethel Watson and Miss Lily Winston Roden plighted their marriage vows at the altar of the First Baptist Church.

The altar was simply but very prettily decorated for the occasion, and a large number of relatives and friends of the couple were present to witness the nuptials. The pastor, Rev. J. W. Porter, performed the ceremony. Mr. Ernest H. Roden, a brother of the bride, and Messrs. Lud Hamilton, W. G. T. Baker and William Traxel were the ushers. Miss Grace Porter, a sister of the pastor, presided at the organ.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Susan Kirk Roden, and is one of Maysville's pretty and estimable young ladies, popular among her many friends, who unite in sincerest good wishes for her happiness in her new relation and her new home. Her gown was a handsome traveling costume, with hat to match.

Mr. Watson is a well known and popular traveling salesman, having represented Hirsch Bros. & Co., of Louisville, in this territory of late years.

The newly-wedded couple left on the 3:30 train for Cincinnati and Louisville and will then visit relatives in Indiana, after which they will take up their residence in Memphis.

FATAL SHOOTING.

Judge Fryer, a Well Known Life Insurance Agent in Trouble at Ironton.

Ironton, Ohio, January 30.—Thomas J. Fryer, of Louisville, Ky., special agent of the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company, shot M. J. Burns, of Aurora, Ind., here to-night, the bullet, a 44-caliber, taking effect in the right breast. Burns represents an Aurora picture house.

Both were stopping at the Hotel Olive; the shooting occurred in a saloon next door. Fryer gave himself up and is in jail. He comes of a prominent Kentucky family. Both men were drinking.

Burns is alive, but cannot recover.

Mr. Fryer is quite well known in Maysville, having been here several times of late years.

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Machius, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from Pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of Consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 50c. and $1. Trial bottles free at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store.

LOST ALL BY FIRE.

Home of Mr. James Peggs, Near South Ripley. Burned Tuesday at Noon.

The frame residence occupied by Mr. James Peggs near South Ripley burned to the ground Tuesday at 11 a. m. The roof was in flames when the fire was discovered, and the blaze is supposed to have started from a spark.

The family saved only a few articles of furniture. All their clothing, canned fruit, preserves, lard and about forty pieces of pork were lost. The loss is especially heavy on Mr. Peggs as he had no insurance.

The building belonged to Mr. Charles Osborne.

For the Public Good.

In another part of this paper appears an advertisement worthy the reading, as it's for the public good. It tells of a free distribution of Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy for kidney ills. Read it, and call at J. J. Wood & Son's, February 2nd.
